Money Matters

TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID

Scholarships: Scholarships are given in recognition of what you've accomplished through academic study, talent, service projects and/or future goals.

- For more detailed scholarship information for aid such as the UT Promise, Scholarship Aviator, Academic Merit Scholarships, Transfer Scholarships and more visit utm.edu/scholarships.

Grants: Grants are typically awarded based on financial need.

Loans: Student loan programs let you borrow money to help pay for your education. Repayment of most educational loans begins after you graduate. Because loans must be repaid, you should plan your borrowing carefully.

Work-Study: If you qualify through the FAFSA, the Federal Work-Study program gives you the opportunity to work part-time while going to school.

GETTING STARTED WITH FINANCIAL AID

File the FAFSA each year beginning October 1.

- If we need additional documents from you for verification purposes, we will let you know via email. You can also view your financial aid requirements in your UT Martin portal.

Receive financial aid awards

- These are available in your UT Martin Portal.

Accept or decline financial aid awards

- Look under "Registration and Degree Progress" in your UT Martin Portal.
- Satisfactory academic progress: Students receiving federal aid must meet standards in three areas:
 1. Completion rate
 2. Cumulative grade point average
 3. Maximum time frame

Money Matters

We're here to help you achieve your educational goals. Please remember that we'll communicate all financial aid and payment needs through your UT Martin email. Please check it regularly!

SATISFYING FEES

The Bursar's Office at UT Martin is responsible for billing of student tuition accounts. For the most up-to-date costs, visit the Bursar's Office web site at utm.edu/tuition.

Fees for Fall 2026 will be announced in early July after approval by the University of Tennessee Board of Trustees. All fees for Fall 2026 semester fees or payment arrangements should be satisfied by Thursday, Sept. 3.

Once your fees are assessed in July, you will be able to view your bill in your UT Martin portal.

Installment Payment Plans: You can sign up for an installment payment plan, which distributes your remaining tuition and fees balance into four payments throughout the fall semester. Deadline is 5 p.m., Sept. 3.

Books/Supplies: Students who are receiving more financial aid than they are being billed for may use a portion of that money to pay for books at our bookstore. We refer to it as a book voucher; however, you're actually getting some of your excess financial aid added to your Skyhawk Card in advance. Check with the Bursar's Office for more information.

Estimated cost: $750 per semester

E-Refunds: Refunds can be deposited directly to student bank accounts by signing up for e-refunds as explained at utm.edu/bursar under the E-Refund tab. If direct deposit is not established, then a refund check will be mailed to the student's address. Be advised, there will be a delay with paper checks.

E-Bills: Current students will be billed electronically by email unless they sign an Election for Paper Bill Form in the Bursar's Office.

FALL 2026 SEMESTER FEES ARE DUE THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3.
